COACHES WHIP ELEVENS INTO SHAPE. CAPT. MARSHALL, WHO

COLUMBIA'S LAST HARVARD WORKS PREPARATORY GAME HARDER THAN EVER

Celumbia plays Swarthmore to-morrow afternoon at the Polo Grounds. It will be the Blue and White's last preparatory game before meeting Amherst on Saturday, to be followed by games with Pennsylvania and Tale. Swarthmore will be a good trial house and as with Pennsylvania and Yale. Swarth-more will be a good trial house and as the grounds will be a good trial horse and as the grounds will be in fairly good shape doubtless Columbia will likely roll up a big score. Coach Morley is gradually rounding his men into shape for the lig games.

Realizing that a brace is necessary if folumbia is to beat Amherst, Coach Morley vesterday put the Biue and the wirriors through the stiffest sort of precice.

Acriev ton Capt, Simith, Duell and Market big at the coaches put the single that a brace is necessary if folumbia is to beat Amherst, Coach Morley vesterday put the Biue and the wirriors through the stiffest sort of precice.

But one fault was really noticeable, and that was fully line fault was really noticeable, and that was fully line fault which will be easily remedied, and become from his injury within a very holes through the opposing line and he some man whom the coaches feel satisfied with.

YOUNG PALMA ON TEAM.

Columbia's Law School has decided to organize a football team. The most prominent candidate of the lot will probably be Jose Estrada Palma, son or the day one man whom the coaches feel satisfied with.

The hard work the coaches put the candidates through yesterday showed them to be getting better. But one fault was really noticeable, and that was full was really noticeable, and that here were so the boys agoing, and his absence from the line is one man whom the coaches feel satisfied with.
